AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In these stories readers will meet, come to know, and often be surprised by high-achieving upper-class academics, seemingly conservative educators brought low by greed and lust, children of the Holocaust whose lives depended on youth-developed skills of cheating and cruelty, and a drug-addicted street person with life-long confusion of personal identity. This book of four short stories and a memoir is based on the author s vast memories of people and places he has known in his eight decades of life so far. In a touching memoir about the house where he spent his childhood the author sets family history against a vivid background of decades of urban development. Drawing on sixty years as a professional educator and psychologist, as well as having lived among middle class professionals as neighbors, Merle Fischlowitz s stories illuminate the inner and outer worlds of the astounding variety of people he has known.
