McDonald's Lawn, Fort Scott, Kansas, December 3, 1904 The raising of the American flag over the Block House, December 3rd, 1904, was one of the most impressive ceremonies ever witnessed in the city. It was a pretty sight, too, one that will be remembered by the citizens of Fort Scott for many years. A program had been previously arranged for the occasion, and it was carried out with not a single incident to mar the harmony of the proceedings. Long before 2 o'clock people began to gather at the corner of First street and National avenue. By 2 o'clock, the time set for the services to begin, there were several hundred persons present, and had it not been for the unpleasant weather the crowd would have been very large. The procession, headed by the ladies of the Woman's Belief Corps, reached the Block house at a very few minutes past 2 o'clock. The procession formed on Main street, as follows:...
