Excerpt: .was rather eager for his coming, because she felt sure that he would call at the post office, and she hoped so that he might bring her a letter from Sister Kathleen. When next she glanced towards the road she saw a man walking down the meadow path to the house. It was Mr. Fennell, the new minister, who had lately come to officiate at the little village chapel. Lizzie sighed as she set down the watering-pot. She had not exchanged more than the merest greeting with Mr. Fennell since he came to Danesbury, and she had no wish for further intercourse with him. She was sorry he had come now, when her father Was not at home to receive him. Good evening, Miss Austen, said the minister in hearty tones. His round, somewhat florid face had a very kindly expression, and he shook hands...
