Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A School for Greybeards; Or the Mourning Bride: A Comedy, in Five Acts, as Performed at the Theatre Royal, Drury-Lane I offer the following Comedy to the public, under a circumstance which has given my mind the most exquisite uneasiness. On the morning after the first representation, it was observed by the papers that there had been persons present at the Theatre the preceding evening, who went there determined to disapprove at all events. From such a determination it is hard indeed to escape! And the opposition intended, was justified it seems, by the indecency of some of the expressions. - From such a charge I feel it impossible to defend myself; for against an imputation like this, even vindication becomes disgraceful!
