CXLVTL THE LIFE OF THE PRIMITIVE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY Introduction: dally life of the believers (Act* The cure of the lame Effect upon the Peter s explanation of the miracle (, M.) The believers all kept together and shared all things with one another; and they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all according as each man had need. Daily with one accord they resorted to the temple and broke bread in their own homes. They ate their food with gladness and single-heartedness, praising God, and were well regarded by all the people. The Lord also added daily to their number those who were being saved. Now Peter and John were going up to the temple for the hour of prayer at three in the afternoon, when a certain man who had been lame from birth was carried past,...
