Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Study of the Winston-Salem Schools The work of the Home-County Study Clubs at the University of North Carolina has attracted the attention of thoughtful people all over the country. It would be difficult to estimate the good that has been done by these intimate studies of home-county conditions by students who counted it a privilege to do their part in helping their county find itself. Forsyth County and Winston-Salem desired a survey even more intimate. We wanted the University to send us men to go over the field and tell us where we lead, where we lag and the way out. The request was presented to President Graham. He gladly fell in with our plan and made it possible for Winston-Salem and Forsyth County to have the most complete survey yet made in the State. The survey was made by Prof. E. C. Branson, Dr. Charles Lee-Raper and Dr. L. A. Williams. It will be published in two parts. The first part will contain two sections. The first section is The Social and Economic...
