Dog Ear Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 124 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in.A funny thing happened on the way to the publisher. I told my 10th grade teacher that I didnt like poetry because it makes you read between the lines. God forbid I should have to think. But, I started to appreciate the lyrics to the music that I liked at that me. The words and images of Jim Morrison, Seals and Crofts, Simon and Garfunkel and others seemed more relevant than she loves you ya, ya, ya. One influence led to another: the darkness of Edgar Allan Poe, the powerful soliloquies of Shakespeare, the experimental style of e. e. cummings. I tinkered and tried these methods until I developed my own way. This is a book of my search for the answers to the unanswerable questions. There are many paths to try: philosophy, religion, science, the arts. Choose one. They all lead with an unquenchable desire to somewhere. Born, educated and still living in Pittsburgh, I left the University of Pittsburgh with a creative pen in hand only to find work in an office at U. S. Steel. I met my future wife in that same building working for a law firm. After thirteen years, a strikelockoutlay-off and a few part- me jobs later, I ended up at a Gulf Oil terminal. So, I have been on both sides of the work force; white collar and blue collar. Twenty-two years later, I decided it was me to fulfill my goals. I am pushing forward to publish my work which has been most of my adult life in the making. By the way, were still married thirty years later. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
