Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Leading Cases in the Commercial Law of England and Scotland, Vol. 1: Selected and Arranged in Systematic Order The design of the present work is to illustrate the Commercial Law of England and Scotland by systematizing the Leading Judgments of the Courts of the two countries. In discoursing on the state of the law in America, Mr. Story observes, - The mass of the law is accumulating with an almost incredible rapidity, and with the accumulation the labour of students as well as professors is seriously augmented. It is impossible not to look without some discouragement upon the ponderous volumes which the next half century will add to the groaning shelves of our jurists. The habits of generalization which will be acquired and perfected by the liberal studies which I have ventured to recommend, will do something to avert the fearful calamity which threatens us of being buried alive, not in the Catacombs, but in the labyrinths of the Law. Mere abstract propositions of Law do not satisfy the Student. He wishes to see the principles contained in these propositions applied to actual cases; but the multitude of cases to which he is referred in support of any single proposition forms a serious obstacle to the Student's progress. He has neither time nor inclination to undertake an examination of them all, and he is at a loss to determine which he ought to select. By separating, therefore, the principal Leading Cases in the Law from the accumulated mass of Decisions, it is hoped that the labours both of the Student and the Practitioner may be lessened. The work, however, is not intended as one...
