The Room When I opened my eyes, the brightness was overwhelming. It hit me like an avalanche pouring into my brain. I squinted, it even made my eyes water. Slowly, shapes and slight shadows started to form as my pupils narrowed. Everywhere is white. The walls; the ceiling. . . . the floor. . . . all are a brilliant blinding white. Whoever decorated this place needs some serious training in colour selection, I thought to myself. Even the chair I was sitting in, along with several others, was upholstered in soft, white leather. As I looked around, I saw that in the corner, on a white cupboard, there was a water cooler. The water being the only thing in the room that was not white, but being transparent I suppose it didnt make much difference. Even the Styrofoam cups were. . . . white. Staggering...
