Excerpt: .its appearance as a state of b, but which is in truth a state of this M, by means of which its preceding modification M(y) is changed. Efficient causation, therefore, actually takes place, but it takes place only apparently between the two finite beings as such. In truth, the Absolute proCHANGE EFFECTED BY THE INFINITE. 73 duces the effect upon itself, since by virtue of the unity and consistency of its own Being it cannot be affected with the state with which it is affected as the being a, without likewise being affected with the succeeding state in the being b, --a state which appears to our observation as an effect of a on b. It is true that the manner in which it comes to pass, that even within the one Infinite Being one state brings about another, remains still wholly unexplained; and...
