He was a native of this city, and was the eleventh child of Benjamin and Sarah (James) Eddy. He was born May 29, 1806, and when a boy went to Boston and learned the trade of an engraver. He had natural talent of a high order, and having a passionate love for art and all that pertains to it, became a very skillful engraver. As soon as he learned the trade he went to New York, and while engaged there he made a trip to Europe to purchase a finer set of engraver s tools than could at that time be procured in this country. While in Europe he visited the art galleries and conceived an idea that good copies of...
