Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 157 pages. Celeste Friedman opens a Pandoras Box of what lives in the hearts of single men and women. Revealing funny truths, common principles and basic needs, she salutes those who enjoy their independence and fearlessly tread outside of the mainstream. Todays single men are striving to build wealth and status, as single women are focusing on their careers, gaining self respect and self worth. Millions of singles are discovering there is more to life after the loss of a spouse. Single mothers are achieving success that years ago would have been just a dream. Statistics show that more people are choosing the single life after divorce or failed relationships. Empowerment . . . The Mattress is All Yours . . . Freedom to Pursue Your Passion . . .
