OF UNION WITH GOD IN THE OBSERVANCE AND THE DUTIES OF THE SABBATH. Introductory remarks. -- Objected to the observance of the Sabbath, that all days are equally holy. -- Explanations of this view and answer to it. -- Of the rest and peace of the Sabbath. -- Of the spiritual benefits of the Sabbath. -- Union with God implies union with him in the support of this day. Those designs of mercy, which God entertains towards our fallen race, will be carried on, in part at least, in connection with the Christian Sabbath. And those, who cooperate and are united with God, will cheerfully recognize the day, and harmonize in its great purposes. It is not our object, however, to enter into the subject of the original establishment of the Sabbath, nor of the change of the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week; nor to enter into the examination of some other topics, which are ordinarily connected with it. We introduce the subject here for the purpose of considering it in another aspect. 2. It is something worthy of notice, amongst the remarkable things of the present time, that the Christian Sabbath, contrary to what would be the natural expectation in the case, is attempted to be set aside by persons who have a respect for religion, and appear to be persons of true benevolence and piety. Some of them make high claims to holiness...
