

A Float of Crocodiles (Hardback)

By Karlie Gambino

Gareth Stevens Publishing, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 180 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Crocodiles are intelligent and social animals that communicate in many ways. A group of crocodiles in water is called a float, and a group on land is called a bask. They are masters at hiding in water and waiting for an unlucky animal to wander by. Readers discover many fun facts about what life is like in a group of crocodiles and see colorful, up-close photographs of the fierce reptiles in their natural habitat. Accessible text and a helpful graphic organizer allow readers to independently explore the fascinating lives of these amazing animals.
